Memorial Hermann 411 Stay Safe this Fourth of July

The National Safety Council reports that Independence Day is one of the most dangerous holiday weekends of the year. Memorial Hermann Memorial City Medical Center wants to remind you that many summer activities can take a dangerous turn if you don't take safety precautions.

Here are few simple safety reminders:

- Drink plenty of water
- Wear proper safety gear for water activities
- Keep young children away from fireworks

Should an emergency arise, the Emergency Center at Memorial Hermann Memorial City Medical Center is prepared to treat traumatic and critical injuries, any time of day or night.
