

Making Your Meal Count During Memorial City Restaurant Weeks

Next week is the final stretch of Memorial City Restaurant Weeks, and we're in awe of our restaurant partners and all of you. We knew it'd be a delicious month full of giving back, but we are overcome with gratitude for the creative menus, word-of-mouth excitement, and generous spirits on display throughout April. All of the funds generated for the Memorial Hermann Foundation will help important work continue, and it wouldn't be possible without this amazing community! We have a feeling the upcoming week may be the best yet, so plan to enjoy making your meal count by April 30.
