

Memorial Cityzen: It's Beginning to Feel a Lot Like Summer

It's starting to feel like summer. We're lingering on patios a little longer, enjoying those extra hours of light every evening as we plan staycations by bright blue pools. The Memorial City Farmers & Feel Good Market returns Sunday, May 23, and we're already plotting our course through the tents of amazing vendors. Locally grown produce just tastes better, and there's something special about meeting the folks who grew it. Gourmet artisan foods from salsas to olive oils, handmade jewelry, clothing, and other gifts--it will all be there in our open-air market that feels like a party. Speaking of parties: Frolic's Castle is finally back, and we've got big plans! From family events to our favorite deals right now, keep scrolling to see all that's happening in Memorial City!

Memorial City Farmers & Feel Good Market

The Memorial City Farmers & Feel Good Market is back and bigger than ever. Join us on Sunday, May 23, from 10am-3pm under the tents next to Torchy's Tacos and Mia's Table. We'll have 50 vendors offering locally-curated fresh produce and foods, stylish jewelry, clothing, and gifts. There will also be family-friendly entertainment like face-painting, balloon artist, acrobatic performances, a DIY succulent bar, music, and more.

Torchy's Tacos Memorial City

Torchy's isn't just about tacos. Their Airstream Salad is an explosion of flavors featuring Arugula & Picked Mint, Avocado, Pico De Gallo, Grilled Corn, Cotija Cheese, Peppadew Peppers & Pistachios, with a Drizzle of Chipotle Sauce & a side of Champagne Vinaigrette.

Buckle

It's easy to do it all in denim when you have a variety of styles and colors like these from Buckle! They are our Shop of the Week starting on Monday, May 17. Check back in for special deals and other surprises.
