

Memorial Cityzen: Hot Summer, Sizzling Styles

July in Houston is one of our favorite times of year: Heat and humidity are high, but so are spirits. We're making time for leisurely brunches and slow shopping trips where we don't dash in and out, but instead, linger, enjoying the possibilities. The effervescent MAC Cosmetics is the Shop of the Week, which is great news for all of us longing to experiment with new hues and techniques after months of no make-up at all. MAC has a way of making even the most mundane daily routines feel special--and then leaves us with beautiful results. Keep scrolling to see our staff picks for fresh looks, staycations, summer eats, and so much more!
