

Memorial Cityzen: Fall is Calling

Days are still long and nights are still balmy, but we know fall is on its way. Transitional pieces are on our must-have list right now, as we anticipate cooler autumn weather—even in the midst of current Houston heat. A change in season also calls for adjusting our skin and hair care routines, while restorative staycations also beckon, promising to help us rest and recharge so we can better navigate busier schedules. Keep scrolling to see our staff picks for gourmet eats—especially as Houston Restaurant Weeks winds down—versatile new looks, quick getaways, and so much more!

Michael Kors

The SoHo studded quilted leather shoulder bag is the perfect mix of uptown polish and downtown cool. Plus it comes in any color to match your mood.

Liberty Kitchen at The Treehouse

Just one week left for Houston Restaurant Weeks. Plenty of time to visit Liberty Kitchen at The Treehouse to try the Texas Redfish on the Half Shell. They have special menus for brunch, lunch, and dinner, and a portion of the price benefits the Houston Food Bank.
