

Memorial Cityzen Special Edition: Fall Fashion

Fall fashion is here, and we are ready: Earthy tones, layers of texture, and chic versatility take priority. These days, we're feeling grateful for changing seasons, which both challenge us and offer compelling new opportunities for self-expression. School and work have replaced summer leisure, and the change of pace is invigorating, as long as we continue to make time to rest and recharge. Turn to Memorial City for gourmet dining, posh staycations, and all things self-care--and keep scrolling to see our staff picks for impeccable autumn style.

Zara

Zara knows that layers matter the most in Houston, where the weather can change from one minute to the next. The Textured Double Breasted Blazer will keep you comfortable and stylish, no matter what the thermometer says.

Johnston & Murphy

Fall is all about comfort, and the Banks Collection from Johnston & Murphye is designed to help you find your happy place.

Coach

Coach's most-wanted bag is back and ready for the season. The always iconic Rogue is now available with new motifs, colorways, and Signature Textile Jacquard -- so you can make it your own!

Michael Kors

Celebrate the season and Michael Kors' 40th Anniversary. It's all about stepping out and making the streets your runway!

Abercrombie & Fitch

Say "pumpkin spice" three times and fall will appear! Abercrombie & Fitch has what you need to prepare for that magical moment!

Athleta

Allyson Felix is the most decorated track & field female athlete in Olympic history. She is teaming with Athleta for a new collection dedicated to all women, mothers, and athletes. This winning look will keep you on track.

Victoria's Secret

Yes, you can lounge and look stylish at the same time. Thanks, Victoria's Secret! Their Live On Point collection makes every relaxation moment look good. Real good.

Vera Bradley

It may be a while before Houston feels chilly again, but with Vera Bradley we are already ready! Stock up on their famous fleece blankets and cozy favorites before the temperatures drop.

Pandora

Leave your back-to-work style stress at home. Check out Pandora's favorite statement pieces that pair perfectly with a simple, neutral look.

Banana Republic

Banana Republic has the elevated essentials and effortless designs to help you perfectly transition into the cooler season.
