

Memorial Cityzen: Holiday Season in Memorial City Starts Now!

Memorial City will officially usher in the most wonderful time of the year this weekend with family fun, special visitors--and a little bit of magic. We cherish traditions during this season, and Memorial City has some of the best: Memorial City Lights will delight us all this Saturday, November 13, at 7 p.m., and Santa has officially set up shop in our merry corridors. Keep scrolling for all the details. Premier shopping, gourmet dining, festive staycations, and more--it's all here, too. Looking for ways to give back? Our Thanksgiving Food Drive is underway. Read on to learn more about the holiday season's beautiful start in Memorial City.

Memorial City Lights at The Square

Join us Saturday, November 13 at 7pm at The Square, where Santa will officially kick-off the holiday season by illuminating Memorial City with more 3.5 million holiday lights! KHOU Chief Meteorologist David Paul will host the magical evening featuring performances by the Memorial City Reindeer Drumline, JoiLux Band, Soreal Dancers, and TUTS Humphreys School of Musical Theatre, all followed by that dazzling moment when Santa himself makes his big appearance.

Space is limited! Live streaming will also be available on our Facebook page.

Santa is here and ready for everyone's holiday wish list! From now until Friday, December 24, join Santa at St. Nick's Park, located in the Dillard's court, where you will find a haven of magical twinkle lights, a forest of illuminated Christmas trees, giant reindeer and his special helpers! Take the memories home with photos that are available for purchase. The whole family is invited--even your pets (on Mondays!).

'Tis the season for all those warm and inviting holiday scents! From candles and room sprays, to hand soaps and body care, Bath & Body Works will have you feeling more festive in no time.

THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

BENEFITING KIDS' MEALS

Help Memorial City Help Houston Children
This Holiday Season

Thanksgiving Food Drive

Give the gift of full bellies by donating to our Thanksgiving Food Drive benefiting Kids' Meals, a local charity dedicated to ending childhood hunger in Houston. From now through Friday, November 24, we will be collecting donations at our designated bins located at Guest Services near the Food Court.

Some of the most needed items are: applesauce, juice boxes, fruit cups (no sugar added), trail mix, chewy granola bars, cheese and peanut butter crackers.

Liberty Kitchen at the Treehouse

Liberty Kitchen and Oysterette at the Treehouse specializes in fresh, delectable seafood dishes that make a wonderful addition to any holiday meal. They are also offering a special to-go Thanksgiving menu, featuring their Prime Rib Package that feeds 4-6 people. Or ask about their Starter Packages featuring their signature Parker Rolls and deviled eggs with bacon jam. Place your order anytime before November 21, and pick up either Tuesday, November 23, or Wednesday, November 24.

The McKinley

The McKinley, Memorial City's newest luxury high-rise, proudly stands at twenty-five stories tall, overlooking Houston's beautiful west side. The building features airy one-to-three bedroom floor plans and sleek penthouses with access to game-changing amenities such as a glassy, resort-worthy pool with outdoor grills, state-of-the-art fitness center and more.

The McKinley is located at 9757 Katy Freeway.
